

Turning Myself into You

Captain Tractor

I've been sitting in my bedroom for so long
And it's Monday night
Drinking endless cups of emptiness
Wondering if you're alright

When I'm bored, and I'm lonely
I've been touched by the moon
I change the color of my hair and my eyes
Turning myself into you

I've been lying in my bed of flowers
And it's Wednesday night
Staring out the window and into the sky
Everything turns black and white

When I'm bored, and I'm lonely
I've been touched by the moon
I've been wearing your coat and dancing in the rain
Turning myself into you

I've been unblinking in the night

I've been thinking about you
Spinning around with my arms open wide
I've been missing you
Where are you?
I've been standing in this kitchen for so long
Now it's Friday night
Everyone's here but there's tears on my cheeks
Can't seem to get anything right

When I'm bored, and I'm lonely
I've been touched by the moon
I've been wearing your coat and dancing in the rain
Turning myself into you

When I'm bored, and I'm lonely
I've been touched by the moon
I change the color of my hair and my eyes
Turning myself into you
