

Lake

Captain, We're Sinking

She puts on her mom's old jewelry
And catches a glimpse of herself and laughs hysterically
She's got her mother's eyes and her father's grin
She shares her sister's love for prescription medicine
She likes to sin

There's no lake to clean me
No friends, I'm so lonely

She's tired of sleeping next to bugs and grasshoppers
Waking up naked wrapped in sheets next to pill poppers
She says she wants it and says she needs it

Well I know the way that this will end
And I know the way you'll go

There's no lake to clean me
No friends, I'm so lonely
So save me
So save me

She loves me
I believe that to be true
Even though my heart is made of glass and it's already been smashed
I'd give all of the pieces to you

There's no lake to clean me
No friends, I'm so lonely
So save me
