

Montreal

Captain, We're Sinking

Beauty queen teens all stand in line to be beaten
By hot-headed guys that are too afraid they may leave them
Daddy's little girl has a girl of her own
And they're sleeping in the closet of her best friend's new home
They're so cold

Her friend says "Keep your faith because you'll get what you believe in"
But halfway through her rosary her baby starts screaming
She asks, "If you died once to free me from my sins
Well, I've got more than I can count so would you die for me again?"

Have you seen my life?
It's like I don't even try
Have you seen my life?

They'll tell me I crossed the line

Of being out of my f*cking mind
When I fell in love with you

She got to the part about the people and the exodus
She's stuck there with her skeletal frame saying "Yeah, but don't forget about the rest of us."
You're drunk off wine but you're sobering up with bread
I'm not sorry for the things I've said
Well, I don't blame you, no not anymore
'Cause I will save you just like before

They'll tell me I crossed the line
Of being out of my f*cking mind
When I fell in love with you
I've crossed the line
I've crossed the line
I've crossed the line