

Destroyed by Hippie Powers

Car Seat Headrest

I am freaking out in my mind
In a house that isn't mine
My end goal isn't clear Should not have had that last beer

It's more than what you bargained for, but it's a little less than what you paid for My bowtie's come undone, my microphone hangs limp on the mic stand and Tell my mother I'm going home, I have been destroyed by hippie
powers
Tell my mother I'm going home, I have been destroyed by hippie
powers

That guy I kinda hate is here Shouldn't have had that last...WHOOO!! HIT OF DMT!!!!

What happened to that chubby little kid who smiled so much and loved the Beach Boys?
What happened is I killed that fucker and I took his name and I got new glasses
Tell my mother I'm going home, I have been destroyed by hippie
powers
Tell my mother I'm going home, I have been destroyed by hippie
powers
