

Drunk On A Work Night

Car Seat Headrest

I think I'm about to be pissed

You guys, left me here. Driving around in this town I have no fucking idea how to get around in. Never been here before. Never driven here before. You said I could park here. I can't fucking park here because there's a towzone. So now I'm just driving around, I don't know where the fuck I'm going, I'm already fucking up. Where th- where th- where the fuck did you guys go? Why are all these one way streets? Jesus! Fuck this town!

You've been on meth the whole night? You fucking cunt! I thought we were bonding but, but you were on meth! We were having a good time, getting to know each other and then I look at your eyes and you're fucking tweaking! I didn't even want this drink! Why do I have this drink? Jesus, did you put something in it? You fucking sociopath!

Why d- why did you take meth? I swear to god, I'm leaving after this drink

I fell off my bike
I'm drunk on a work night
Why did I let you in
Why did I let you in
