

The Love in Your Eye

Caravan

In dreams of you I wish a song on everyone
A gift of love to fill your eyes, to fill your eyes
And if I turn your head awhile, my heart will sing
Thunder songs of love to make you smile

I've travelled far in search of things I didn't know
I could have found as well at home as in the skies
There's so much time misspent in dreams of wealth and fame
When all you need is love in your eye

Take a cup of newfound wealth
Drink it down and do yourself
Let your feelings tell you why
Have no fear for lonely days
Mind in hand you'll find a way
You must believe me till you've tried

Come the day
Insomuch as we can tell
A shadow clears anew before me
Sing your song
And through our needs we'll tag along
Collecting thoughts for all the others
