Carbon Based Lifeforms

Many years ago,
When I was a little girl,
I found myself lost in the forest. Alone.
I felt a strange warm energy.
Something was coming closer.
It guided me deeper into the forest.
And down under the ground.

They were friendly creatures, not at all evil.
I followed then down underground.
This is my home now.

Well, I'm not sure what to believe
About those stories.
But I can tell you for damn sure
That the girl was nowhere to be found.
We searched every inch of that forest
And found nothing

They were friendly creatures, not at all evil.
I followed then down underground.
This is my home now.
