

The Fox and the Hare

Carbon Leaf

I will fight Nazis to keep you with me!
And I would face zombies eating flesh in the street!
And I would tame lions and tigers and bears,
Run away, run away from the fox you young hare,
Run away, run away, you've been caught unprepared,
Run away, run away unprepared.

Well I am no BoyScout but I'm always prepared.
Don't call me a hero, 'cause I never fight fair.
Just doin' my job protecting what's mine,
Honey you know you're free to go any old time.

Boys... Run away and you will despair,
Run away boys, you are way unprepared.

And I will fight Nazis to keep you with me,
And I would face zombies eating flesh in the street,
And I would tame lions and tigers and bears,
Run away, run away from the fox you young hares,
Run away, run away, you've been caught unprepared,
Run away you are way unprepared.

To the ledge, the ledge, I will meet you all there.
To the ledge, the ledge, if anyone dares,
A path for a duel of some musical chairs,
Just make sure you brake to the wings and affair.

Boys... Run away and you will despair,
Run away boys, you are way unprepared.

And I would fight Nazis to keep you with me,
And I would face zombies eating flesh in the street,
And I would tame lions and tigers and bears,
Run away, run away from the fox you young hare,
Run away, run away, you've been caught unprepared,
Run away you are way unprepared.

Don't hate to be lovely, you beautiful thing,
Without a few sutiors, circling the ring,
But I'm cunning, crafty, recourseful, and smart,
And I know a good gal don't just give up her heart.
To the ledge, to the ledge, I'll meet you all there,
To the ledge, the ledge if anyone dares,
To the victor, the spoils, the winner takes all,
And the rest of ya take turns makin' eachother fall.

And I will fight Nazis to keep you with me,
And I would face zombies, eating flesh in the street,
And I would tame lions and tigers and bears,
Run away. run away from the fox you young hare,
Run away, run away from the fox you young hare,
Run away, run away unprepared.
