

No Love Lost

Carcass

Sensual awakening
Numbing feeling's dead
Conception's romanticised
Synthesized broken heart's to bled

Without emotion you heartstring's played
Strummed and severed
To the tune of a tragic serenade

Without emotion, your heartstrings break
Snapped and severed
To the tune of a tragic, sad cliché

No love lost
When all is said and done
There's no love lost

The low cost of loving
Amorous travesty
Human frailties and weakness are easy prey
How your poor heart will bleed
