Nihilus

Carcosa

Veni, Vidi, Vici
Victoria aut mors
Veni, Vidi, Vici
Victoria aut mors

Forged by the shadows in the depths of the core
I am the figure in black that you've come to abhor
My presence is felt, my voice will be heard
This is what I am and all will come to learn that

I am the Father of nihility
I'm the beginning and the end
The legends prophesied, were seen through my own eyes
Baptized in the valley of the emerald skyline

Masqueraded in droves of black
Woven by the aura of all that beacons me
To where it all began

Born in the purest of light but made darker by the cold dark nights
I spent alone
Told how to live told how to feel
But little did they know that the hate I felt inside was real

Unsuspecting fools

Knew not what was coming for them was pure unbridled sacrilege
All their words were stripped away

Veni, Vidi, Vici
Victoria aut mors

I am the Father of Nihility
I'm the beginning and the end
The legends prophesied, were seen through my own eyes
Baptized in the valley of the emerald skyline

The moment is upon us
Come forth and prepare the altar
It's as the prophecy foretold

Now it's time to meet your fucking maker

It's been prophesied before our very eyes
So now it's time to meet your fucking maker

Ego Sum Pater Domini Nihility
Ego Sum Pater Domini Nihility
