

Girl And The Ghost

Carina Round

What's that coming down?
Shattering skies
Your whole world exploding in flashes on fire

Shards of broken dreams
Stuck in your hands
Pick the pieces out put them back together
As best you can

Through the imperfections
Through the imperfections and the cracks
You will see the difference between

What you think you know?
What you know?
What you think you know, what you now (2x)

What's that in your mirror?
The girl or the ghost?
You tried so hard
You tried so hard
To let it all go

What's that in your mouth?
The curse or the key?
You keep waving your tongue around
And you'll get heard
Eventually

What you think you've given,
Is not what the world has recieved
Can you feel the distance between

What the think you know
What you know
What you think you know, what you know (2x)

What's that in your heart
The chours is of dust afraid to sing?
What's that in your way?
A mountain of dust in the wind

What's that in your way?
What's that in your way?
Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey
You gone for so long
What have you been waiting for?
Can you even remember?
So far out there waving your hands and screaming
For somebody to remember.
