

Stolen Car

Carina Round

Treating my body like a stolen car

Wait

Twelve-storey building drop

Wait

Well I didn't mean to be looking for you

But it's cold in the alley and my life's a mess

There's a room on fire in the back of my brain

I've been searching through faces but they're all the same

Temptation

I give up the fight tonight

My body is an open mouth, oh

Temptation

I just have to know right now

'Cause I don't wanna be the one who let you go, you go

My mouth burns up when I try to speak

There's something about you, make me feel so weak

I can't seem to find what I came here for

You know we could be lovers but I just want more

My arms are open but you play with me

Sweet striptease

Temptation

I give up the fight tonight

My body is an open mouth, oh

Temptation

I just have to know right now

'Cause I don't wanna be the one who let you go

But you stand there waiting for the blood to drain

Too long, waiting for day that never breaks

Watch you pass like a speeding train

Hold me now or run, run, run, run

Temptation

I give up the fight tonight

My body is an open mouth, oh

Temptation

I just have to know right now

'Cause I don't wanna be the one who let you go, you go

I don't wanna be the one who let you go, you go
