

Free Fine and 21

Carl Carlton

- Mm-mm-mm... look at her, look at that!
- Hey man, who is it?
- I don't know, man, but I'd like to know her!
- Has she been walking around here all this time?
- Yeah man, I saw her walkin' down the street yesterday
- She's so fine... hey!
- Hey you, c'mere, woman!

Hey hey, pretty lady in the blue jeans so fine
Can I please have a little of your time? (just a little of your time)
I don't mean to be bold by walking up to you this way
But you got my vote with a land slide victory
A ray of sunshine, in a man's cloudy day
And just to be talking to you is a privilege in its own way

Foxy lady, I hope you're not married
Or in love with someone
Every vibe seem to tell me that you're

Single, single, free, fine and 21 (ooh, you're so fine)
Single (baby doll, I'm just a), single (ooh yeah), free, fine and 21
Single, single, single

I like everything about you
I had a picture of you in my mind
And I said to myself: "if I ever see her
I'd know her at one glance from her smile"

And oh, every, every vibe seem to tell me
Every vibe seem to tell me that you're

Single (single), single (pretty as a picture), free, fine and 21
(Ooh, you're too cold)
Single (single), single (single), free, fine and 21
Oh, fine, fine, fine, fine, fine, fine
Single, single, single
When she goes walkin' down the street (single)
Every man's dies you were there for takin', yeah
Single (pretty as a picture), single (ooh yeah), free, fine and 21
Sexy, sexy, sexy woman
Single (single), single (single, yeah), free, fine and 21

Look at that one over there
The fine, fine curly hair
She's a freak house
The kind of woman a man talks about
Wonder if she's

Single (ooh yeah), single (pretty as a picture), free, fine and 21
Girl, I hope you're not married
Single (yeah, yeah), single (so fine, so fine), free, fine and 21
Are you free? Oh, oh, oh-ho...
Are you free, are you free?
Hey, hey, hey, hey baby
You, you right there with those tight blue jeans on
Come here, let me put a bug in your ear
Can I have your phone number, can I have your address....?
