

Fuck Your Labels

Carlie Hanson

(Mmm, mmm)

I'm at the front of the freakshow
Shouting from the top of the bus, screaming, "Fuck no!"
You just want to put all of us in a box
Leave us for dead and get lost

We give and we take and our hearts break
Pushing us away, you're afraid to reciprocate
You just want to put all of us in a box
Leave us for dead and get lost

Ooh, I'll never be what you want
What you want

I left everything, everything on the table
Everything, everything, so ungrateful
Don't blame me 'cause you're unstable
Don't judge me, no
Fuck your labels

Everything, everything, you can't save me
Everything, everything, you can't change me
Don't blame me 'cause you're unstable
Don't judge me, no
Fuck your labels

I know, it's so cold
It's only us, baby, out, no control
But when I'm up, when I'm high, you'll be calling
Give you back everything, I don't want it

I know I'm gold
I got it all figured out but you don't
And when I'm up, when I'm high, you'll be calling
But I don't want it, no

I left everything, everything on the table
Everything, everything, so ungrateful
Don't blame me 'cause you're unstable
Don't judge me, no
Fuck your labels

Everything, everything, you can't save me
Everything, everything, you can't change me
Don't blame me 'cause you're unstable
Don't judge me, no
Fuck your labels

(I know that, ooh
Ooh, I'll never be what you want, what you want
Ooh, I'll never be what you want, what you want)

I left everything, everything on the table
Everything, everything, so ungrateful
Don't blame me 'cause you're unstable
Don't judge me, no

Fuck your labels

Everything, everything, you can't save me
Everything, everything, you can't change me
Don't blame me 'cause you're unstable
Don't judge me, no
Fuck your labels

(Everything, everything, you can't save me
Everything, everything, you can't change me
Don't blame me 'cause you're unstable
Don't judge me, no
Fuck your labels)
