

Liability

Carly Pearce

Midnight, you crawl back, swearin' you lost track
How can you say that with a straight face?
Your phone is glowin', you say it's no one
It's funny, no one calls me this late

You tell me I'm crazy, yeah, I know
But I gotta see how far you're gonna go

The way those words roll off your silver tongue
Your fabricated love's become a liability
And oh, it's killin' me
How you stand there oh-so-confidently
Can't believe your look-me-in-the-eye ability
Your lie ability, yeah

I'll give you credit, you really sell it
The way you tell it just sounds so good
The poison's in the apple, the snake is in the grass
The truth about a lie is that it ain't ever made to last

The way those words roll off your silver tongue
Your fabricated love's become a liability
And oh, it's killin' me
How you stand there oh-so-confidently
Can't believe your look-me-in-the-eye ability
Your lie ability, yeah

Oh, those words roll off your silver tongue
Your fabricated love's become a liability
And oh, it's killin' me
How you stand there oh-so-confidently
Can't believe your look-me-in-the-eye ability
Your lie ability, yeah

Oh, it's killin' me
Your lie ability, yeah
