

Legendary Mission

Carman

Never be a heart that He
Couldn't mend each broken piece
Never be a wounded soul He would ignore
There'll never a time that He
Would ever turn his back on me
There'll never be a life He can't restore

Where do you go when you feel like
You've been foresaken
Purely forgotten, all alone?
What do you do when your dreams have
Been broken and shattered
Does it really matter to anyone?
There is a Man standing with arms ope wide
Drying the tears that I've cried
Loving me and giving love
And there'll...

Never be a heart that He
Couldn't mend each broken piece
Never be a wounded soul He would ignore
There'll never a time that He
Would ever turn his back on me
There'll never be a life He can't restore

Never will I doubt again
I will never be without a friend
Never will me eyes fail to see
What the Lord did for me

And there'll

Never be a heart that He

Couldn't mend each broken piece

Never be a wounded soul He would ignore

There'll never a time that He

Would ever turn his back on me

There'll never be a life He can't restore
