

Our Turn Now

Carman

Children: Almighty God, we acknowledge our dependence upon Thee and beg for Thy blessings upon us, our teachers, our parents, and our country.

Good evening. This is Charlene Lewis for the 6:00 news. Today, June 25, 1962, the Supreme Court has ruled that school prayer and Bible reading shall cease in all public school systems. It is now official; God has been removed from the classroom in the United States of America

The ball got dropped in '62

They wouldn't let children pray in school

Violent crime began to rise

The grades went down and the kids got high

Free love, gay rights, no absolutes, abortion on demand

Brought VD, AIDS, and no morality

Today no one knows right from wrong

There's blood on people's hands

World, you had your turn at bat

Now stand back and see

That it's our turn now

Something's gonna change

We're gonna bind the devil

At every hand by the power of Jesus' name

Well, it's our turn now think it no surprise

When the gates of hell come crashing down

And you begin to see the church arise

The Supreme Court said, "No God at all"

With the Ten Commandments on their wall
God's Word in the library won't appear
We have a religious apartheid here
Humanism, atheism, no Bible, our consciences have died
We need to seek our God and call His name
The church triumphant's still alive
And we're gonna turn the tide
'Cause with boldness and conviction, we proclaim
Arise and shine, for the Light has come
It's time to lift the name of Jesus high

Yes, it's our turn now
Something's gonna change
We're gonna bind that devil
At every hand by the power of Jesus' name
It's our turn now, think it no surprise
When the gates of hell come crashing down
You begin to see the church arise
It's our turn now
It's no surprise
See those gates of hell crash down
When you begin to see the church arise
