

Can You Tell

Carmen McRae

Can you look into my face
And see the change that has taken place
Can you tell
Can you tell I love you
From the look in my eyes

I'm not sure my feelings show
Maybe you'd be the last
To notice the change
Can you tell I love you
From the look in my eyes

From the look in my eyes
Do you know how badly
I want to tell you all about it
There's a smile that I can't hide
Because loving you the way I do
Makes me feel good inside

Even if we never touch
If you knew, it would mean so much to me
Can you tell
Do you see
Can you tell I love you
From the look in my eyes
