

Inside A Silent Tear

Carmen McRae

Inside a silent tear, I have a silent dream
That sometimes sails across the patterns of my mind.
For silence follows me and dreams just disappear, oh yeah
And then I find myself inside a silent tear

Sometimes I laugh too much
To hide the emptiness, to lose the loneliness.
I'm not the laughing kind.
I can't say anything I really want to say.
Sometimes I try so hard I stumble on the way.

I'm always finding love when it's not meant to be.
What is reality and can it be defined?
When you're a fool like me it's never really clear
So you have silent dreams inside a silent tear.

~~~♪♪♪ ~~~

I'm always finding love when it's not meant to be.
What is reality and can it be defined?
When you're a fool like me it's never really clear
So you have silent dreams inside a silent tear.
~♪ ~ inside a silent tear.