

Bittersweet

Carmouflage Rose

Yeah, tryna make sense of everything and how I'm feelin'
Take in every word, didn't understand just what you meanin'
Am I sick of love or love sick?

Uh, addicted to your poison
It's bittersweet
It's killing me
You addicted me
Oh, yeah, yeah

Tryna make sense of everything and how I'm feelin'
Take in every word, didn't understand just what you meanin'
Am I sick of love or love sick?

Uh, addicted to your poison
It's bittersweet
You're killing me (Oh)
It's killing me (Yeah)
Oh, baby

I'm too young, need a new one, gotta move on and grow
I deserve more like a propose, show me diamonds and pearls
Whatever you want, you know I got it, babe
So tell all your friends 'cause they'll be acting crazy
You always in line, but never hit my line
When you gon' decide? You could be walking, baby
When you wanna cry, you know you got me, baby
When you alone, you know you want me, baby
When you wanna vibe and it's hard to decide
Whatever the night brings, you know I'ma ride

Addicted to your poison
It's bittersweet
You're killing me (Oh)
It's killing me
Uh, addicted to your poison
It's bittersweet
You're killing me
It's killing me
Oh, baby

Too young, I deserve more
Love letter from a lost soul
Thinking too much, I'm down the rabbit's hole
I just rock and roll, I don't know no self control
Time away is much needed, the dysmays got me feeling like an astray
Mixing this heartbreak with champagne tryna escape my past ways
Uh, what's gonna explain my mistakes?
So I ride along with you
I'm too drunk to follow through
It could be the things that I've been through
But maybe I need time

Uh, addicted to your poison
It's bittersweet
You're killing me (Oh)
It's killing me

Uh, addicted to your poison
It's bittersweet
You're killing me
It's killing me
Oh, baby

Addicted to your poison
