

When you fall
Head down
In the mud
In the mud
When you're running
Way too fast
Feel like crying
You feel like crying
It is something in the air
It can't be
It's something that I feel
It haunts me

When you fall
Head down
In the mud
In the mud
When you're running
Way too fast
Feel like crying
Feel like crying
When you fall
Head down
In the mud
In the mud
When you're running
Way too fast
Feel like crying
You feel like crying
It is something in the air
It can't be
Something I feel
It haunts me
