

Death Awaits

Carnifex

Paralysis; I watched you decay in front of my eyes
Carcass; that's all you are now in my life Cut the vein and open your eyes, open your eyes to what you've done in my life
Death awaits, I promise you will die alone

Death awaits, how long has it been since you sold your soul?
When beauty dies and nothing can satisfy, death awaits
I always knew you'd sell your soul
Death awaits
