

Dragged Into The Grave

Carnifex

These are your inner demons
This is death's cold embrace
This is everyone you've ever loved
Spitting in your fking face

It's time to reap what you have sown
Your lies are all that I've ever known
This is everything that should never be read
Written alone in the arms of the dead
This is a world where I am loved only by death
Dragged into the grave
An ocean of my own regret
There is no peace, only this grave
Rotting wounds burn my fking remains

This is regret for every mistake you've ever made
This is every lie you've ever told
Putting you in an early grave
This is death's cold embrace

This is everyone you've ever loved
Spitting in your fking face
I don't give a fk if you live or die
One thousands needles buried in your eyes
Remember when I said I want to watch myself choke
This is a nightmare that I've embraced
Because I like the way blood tastes

It's time to reap what you have sown
Your lies are all that I've ever known
This is everything that should never be read
Written alone in the arms of the dead
This is a world where I am loved only by death
Dragged into the grave
An ocean of my own regret
There is no peace, only this grave
Rotting wounds burn my fking remains

One thousands voices screaming if hell exists
This is it
One thousands voices screaming if hell exists
This is it
This is it
This is it
