

GRAVESEDIE CONFESIONS

Carnifex

All I see is a blood red moon
All I see are suicide wounds
I could die tonight, it's never too soon

All I see are enemies
It's demons as far as I can see
I have reoccurring vampire dreams

I look into the mirror
And I don't want to see anything
Whispers that go on forever
All I hear is screaming since... I can't remember

Hand of the shadow
You're in my projection
Verbal misdirection
Inner insurrection
A living death sentence
I am death in its essence
A living death sentence
I am death in its essence

These are my graveside confessions
All I see is a blood red moon
All I see are suicide wounds
I could die tonight, it's never too soon

All I see are enemies
It's demons as far as I can see
I have reoccurring vampire dreams

I've thought about death so much I don't fear her anymore
When I die I'm not gone you just won't see my human form
And when you sing these words back
No god will forgive you for that

Hand of the shadow
You're in my projection
Verbal misdirection
Inner insurrection
A living death sentence
I am death in its essence
I am a living death sentence

My last words before death
Let me remind you of who I really am

These are my graveside confessions
Nail me in the casket
It's just me and my depression
I've already died
And there no fucking heaven
Graveside confessions
We can all meet death together
Let these songs be our good bye letters
Graveside confessions

And when you sing these words back
No god will forgive you for that
My graveside
My last words before death
I'll go deeper I'll get darker than anyone of them
I don't pick and choose who I judge
Fuck everything
Fuck everyone

Let me remind you of who I really am
A forgotten one
A fallen one
Drowned in blood of unforgiven sins
