

Torn In Two

Carnifex

Night bleeds into day

Screams or whispers
It matters not what you say
Good or evil
Death will get you anyway

Synthesized ideology
Theorizing infinity
Correlating contingency
All of them are a part of me

Stillness, descending
Cold, dark, never ending
Cosmic polarity
Acceptance is understanding
Cold, dark never ending

Torn in two
Duality isn't new
Fabric of humanity, can't escape reality
Heaven or Hell, you have to push through
Torn in two
There's nothing you can do
Fabric of humanity, can't escape reality
Heaven or Hell, you have to push through

Life
Death
Rebirth
Life or death, tell me which matters more
Truth is a paradox, this is what you asked for
This what you asked for

Outside the moral universe
The more you remember, the more it hurts
Pain is just the first verse
Time doesn't heal, it makes it worse

Torn in two
Duality isn't new
Fabric of humanity, can't escape reality
Heaven or Hell, you have to push through
Torn in two
There's nothing you can do
Fabric of humanity, can't escape reality
Heaven or Hell, you have to push through

Life
Death
Rebirth
Life or death, tell me which matters more
The truth is a paradox, this is what you asked for
This is what you asked for
