

Tragedy In Remission

Carnifex

This is sorrow, the sound of breaking glass
This is heartache, my lovers fall a last
Alone I stand at a dark, cold alter, behind the castle gates, beneath a moon bathed sky
Blood flows from my eyes and my tears break my thoughts
This is sorrow, the fall of hope
This is empty, nothing else I can say, nothing else I can say

Tragedy in remission, my words have never fallen so short, fallen so short
I'll carry the casket, and lay remorse to rest
This is sorrow, the fall of hope, nothing else I can say
Tragedy in remission, my words have never fallen so short
Tragedy
