A Kiss Goodbye

You never thought that I would get over you Oh what an illusion That I could never, find a man like you But deep inside But deep inside you know it I'm the stronger one I'm a survivor Will live my life alone 'til I find someone Who doesn't run When love is gone Give me a kiss goodbye Oh darling I hold my head up high and without you I will survive There's no way I'll fall I'm standing tall Give me a kiss goodbye Oh baby Cause I won't live a lie and without you I fly so high I'll get over you You know it's true In a world of dreams life was beautiful Oh what an illusion We gave it all for love we were powerful But I know now But now I know you fooled me With your masquerade I've been betrayed by love charade Give me a kiss goodbye Oh darling I hold my head up high and without you I will survive There's no way I'll fall I'm standing tall Oh I'll get over you You know it's true, yeah So give me a kiss goodbye I will survive I fly so high, yeah Give me a kiss goodbye Oh darling I hold my head up high and without you I will survive There's no way I'll fall I'm standing tall
