

I Am a Woman, I Am

Carola

I'm a girl who makes her mind up
When I see a man like you
And it don't take long to wind up
When I feel the way I do

Oh burning my body
With the heat of your eyes
I know what you're thinking
But do you realize

I am a woman, I am
And I will show any man
Who doesn't believe
In the woman I am
I can take you apart
I'll bring you down low

If you got lovin' I'm ready to go
I am a woman

Take a look and what do you see
Someone that you'd like to know
Just to kiss soft and gentle
Standing in the spotlights glow

Hey mister let me tell you
I can see what's on your mind
Mister let me warn you
Cause I know that you will find

I am a woman, I am...
