Nightingale

Carole King

Like some night bird homeward wingin'
He seeks the sheltered nest
Like the sailor's lost horizon
He needs some place to rest

The songs that he's been singin'
No longer make much sense
And those stranger's cold perceptions
They've killed his confidence

Nightingale, she sails away upon a sea of song Nightingale, she serenades his lonely, lonely life along When his tired voice is broken, his golden hope is gone She makes a lost soul's simple longing, somehow not so wrong Nightingale, nightingale

He was strong, but he was taken
By the thought of his success
Those spotlights shadows how they lured him
And took him like all the rest

But that old dream don't look good now No it don't seem quite the same He needs to hear a tender word Won't you sing him home again?

Nightingale, she sails away up on a sea of song Nightingale, she serenades his lonely, lonely life along When his strength is slowly going his pride is all but gone She makes a foolish dreamer listen to one last song

Nightingale ooh sing sweet nightingale Oh, na, na, na, na Nightingale, oh nightingale, oh nightingale Sing, sing, sing, sweet nightingale
