

Raspberry Jam

Carole King

Pieces of toast raspberry jam
Laid out on the breakfast table
It's time, it's time to begin again

Way down in the valley
Where the rivers flow
Lives a girl named Sally
Who loves to watch things grow

Pieces of toast raspberry jam
Laid out on the breakfast table
It's time, it's time to begin again

Now Sally has five children
And a good old man
And they all sit down together
For their toast and their raspberry jam
Raspberry jam

Oh, how they love
Pieces of toast raspberry jam
Laid out on the breakfast table
