

beautiful girls (get the ugliest world)

carolesdaughter

Beautiful girls get the ugliest world
I'm just a sweetheart in the ugliest world

Human to human, does anyone care?
Wonder when I'll be myself again
Brushing my teeth, brushing my hair
Wondered when I'd do that again

I can't change it, never help me
How I look has never saved me

Beautiful girls get the ugliest world
I'm just a sweetheart in the ugliest world
Is it my fault that I've seen the worst?
No, I'm just a sweetheart in the ugliest world

Do my makeup, starting over
All my flaws, it's a cover
Pick out my outfit, peel my complexion
Been feeling basic, huh? Huh?
Don't know what my real hair looks like
You know why my clothes don't fit, right?
I should never show this side

Beautiful girls get the ugliest world
I'm just a sweetheart in the ugliest world
Is it my fault that I've seen the worst?
No, I'm just a sweetheart in the ugliest world

You'd never know it
I'm broken
Make you feel good
Never show it
