

I love my man (he just doesn't know it yet)

carolesdaughter

I love my man
He just doesn't know it yet
We've been together
Every night in my head

You're going out
You should come over instead
Could be together
Every night in my bed

What should I wear?
You can take it off
What should I say?
You can shut me up
What do I do?
To make you want me

I guess I cracked
Wasn't down with the chase
Yea I attract
Like a fist to a face
What do I do?
To make you want me

I love my man
He just doesn't know it yet
We've been together
Every night in my head

You're going out
You should come over instead
Could be together
Every night in my bed

Hurts when I look
Hurts when I don't
Taking them off
All of my clothes
Use me pretty please
Take me for what I am
Bruise me baby break me

Tell me what's going on
Tell me tell me
Is it my body body?
Not my sobbing story
Just tell me

I love my man
He just doesn't know it yet
We've been together
Every night in my head

You're going out
You should come over instead
Could be together
Every night in my bed
