

Everyone's A Rebel 'Til They Fall In Love

Caroline Jones

I'm never gonna settle down
I'm never gonna be a bride
I hate it when they patronize, say
"You'll change your mind"

But he loves me for my stubborn pride
He loves me for my hippie side
Now I look into his eyes and I
Start to realize

Everyone's a rebel 'til they fall in love
Everyone's a rebel 'til they fall in love
He's asking for my hand, my middle finger's up
Everyone's a rebel, everyone's a rebel
'Til they fall in love, 'til they fall in love

I told him there's no wedding day
I'll give him everything but my freedom
He grabbed my cheeks and kissed my face
Dropped a knee and... (aw shhh! here we go)

Everyone's a rebel 'til they fall in love
Everyone's a rebel 'til they fall in love
He's asking for my hand, my middle finger's up
Everyone's a rebel, everyone's a rebel
'Til they fall in love, 'til they fall in love

His ring is on my hand, my middle finger's up
Everyone's a rebel 'til they fall in love
His ring is on my hand, my middle finger's up
Everyone's a rebel 'til they fall in love

'Til they fall in love
'Til they fall in love
