

Tough Guys

Caroline Jones

I'm selfish if I please myself
I'm good if I please you
I'm a rebel if I don't fit in the box
I'm a talent if I do

I'm ignorant to your hypocrite
Naïve to your experience
Well oops, but I don't give shit
Cause I ain't waitin' on you to approve

Cause I got all the love that my heart can give Tidal wave that you can't hold back
Courage is all dreams need to live
Your fiction is my fact

Tough guys, wantin' this girl to play nice
I don't mean to play rough, guys
I'm just trusting my gut, guys
I think I threaten these tough guys
Cause I'm in love with my own life
And I've heard enough lies
If it makes you cry
If it makes you cry
Well that's just tough, guys

I'm smart if I ask a question
That you know the answer to
I'm an airy fairy hippie if I ask
Why we can't do something brand new

It's comical to see the quizzical
Looks upon your face
As you blame me cause I'm crazy
But it's you who can't keep pace

With all the love that my heart can give
Like a tidal wave that you can't hold back
Courage is all dreams need to live
Your fiction is my fact

Tough guys, wantin' this girl to play nice
I don't mean to play rough, guys
I'm just trusting my gut, guys
I think I threaten these tough guys
Cause I'm in love with my own life
And I've heard enough lies
If it makes you cry
If it makes you cry
Well that's just tough, guys
Kick it

Does it make you cry
Does it make you cry
Does it make you cry, baby, make you cry?

Tough guys, wantin' this girl to play nice
I don't mean to play rough, guys

I'm just trusting my gut, guys
I think I threaten these tough guys
Cause I'm in love with my life
And I've heard enough lies
If it makes you cry
If it makes you cry
Well sorry, but that's just tough, guys
