

Love Song For Myself

Caroline Rose

If I am a doormat
Then I am handwoven
I am exceptional
I am a timeless treasure on a hardwood floor

If I am a punching bag
Then I am here to get you fit
You are a heavyweight fighter
I am genuine cow leather

If I am loneliness then I'm the loneliest
If I'm suffering then I am the morphine
If I'm a death sentence then I too am
The relief from all the pain

And if I am a hurricane
Coming to destroy everything
Then I too am the return of all things beautiful

Maybe one day you will see
All of the beauty within me
But until then, I'll be in touch
I'll just be here falling in love
