

Nothing's Impossible

Caroline Rose

Suddenly I heard the phone ring
I knew it was my destiny
Calling me from the Chateau Marmont lobby
I feel as though I need a change of set
He left an empty cigarette
And casually said (Wow)

Nothing's impossible (Nothing's impossible)
Even for you (Even for you, even for you)
Nothing's impossible (Nothing's impossible)
Even for you

I close my eyes
I'm there
Beyond the horizon
I stand
Beneath the bright lights
And above me, written in the stars, reads
The future

No one is gonna stand in my way
Even if I have to leave this whole city in flames
I'd rather be a hustler on an 8-ball pocket
Than a tattered tarot card in your fake gold locket, no
Funny how things unfold
'Cause I really, really, really don't have time to go
I have my fortune, babe
Would you believe what was said?

Nothing's impossible (Nothing's impossible)
Even for you (Even for you)
Nothing's impossible (Nothing's impossible)
