The Beasts

Carpark North

There are the beasts flushing to the streets
With sorrow on their mind
Always the beasts, more black than you believe
Leaking from my eyes

Can't rise again
Can't you see me fall?

Without you, life does not make sense
Without you by me, why did you go?
Without you, all my lines will bend
I fall without you
Like dirt above and sky below
Like this, you turn me, why did you go?
Like all my lines will bend
You break my fall

Blistering runs across the universe
Their claws are touching clouds
There are the beasts more black than you believe
Releasing hissing sounds

Can't rise again
Can't you see me fall?

Without you, life does not make sense
Without you by me, why did you go?
Without you, all my lines will bend
I fall without you
Like dirt above and sky below
Like this, you turn me, why did you go?
Like all my lines will bend
You break my fall

Without you, life does not make sense
Without you by me, why did you go?
Without you, all my lines will bend
I fall without you
Like dirt above and sky below
Like this, you turn me, why did you go?
Like all my lines will bend
You break my fall
