

My Source

Carrollton

Jesus You're the rock
And all that I can stand on
Jesus You're the hope
And all I can rely on
When I lose the sight of truth
And my questions try replacing You

I'm going back to the source
I'm going back to the source

All my doubt and fear
Falls to the side
When I draw in near
And let myself be overwhelmed by You
I'll remember You
Wake in the morning
Begin with You
Living water for my thirsty soul
My Source

Jesus You're the well
And every good thing flows from You
Jesus You're the truth
And everything comes back to You

I'm going back to the source
I'm going back to the source
I'm going back to the source
I'm going back to the source

All my doubt and fear
Falls to the side
When I draw in near
And let myself be overwhelmed by You
My Lord
I'll remember You
Wake in the morning
Begin with You
Living water for my thirsty soul
