

Stand My Ground

Carrollton

If I speak the truth without love
Who will hear me?
If I walk the path without grace
Who will follow me?
And if I move mountains but never show mercy
All I have done will count for nothing

So I will love, love, love
Before I speak my peace
Show them the heart of God
Beating inside of me
It's not too late, all of this hate
Will start to change and turn around
When love is where I choose to stand my ground
When love is where I choose to stand my ground

I will begin with a heart that is open
Sharing the grace and the hope
That's been shown to me
And though I'm unworthy, I've been forgiven
So with every breath and all that's within me

Now I will love, love, love
Before I speak my peace
Show them the heart of God
Beating inside of me
It's not too late, all of this hate
Will start to change and turn around
When love is where I choose to stand my ground
When love is where I choose to stand my ground

Oh, I will love beacuse You love me
And I forgive beause You forgave
Oh, I will love beacuse You love me
And I forgive beause You forgave

Now I will love, love, love
Before I speak my peace
Show them the heart of God
Beating inside of me
It's not too late, all of this hate
Will start to change and turn around
It's not too late, all of this hate
Will start to change and turn around
When love is where I choose
Love is where I choose
Love is where I choose to stand my ground
