Only You

I hear you calling out my name All of the elements will fade Never before has love looked safe Never again will it look the same

But then we fall back now to this empty house There the wars will rage

And if you leave me now in this empty house Baby it's okay

Oh and it's only you yeah it's only you It's only you and me Oh and it's only you yeah it's only you It's only you and me yeah

And I feel you crawling out my veins Leaving the walls inside with flames Burning the emptiness I've saved Until only you remain

But then my lungs collapse and you pull me out Forever I've been changed Honey you can take me now 'till it all runs out Baby it's okay

Oh but there's only you, yeah it's only you It's only you I see Girl if it's only you, yeah it's only you It's only you and me yeah

Can you feel it now I've weighed it all out Here and now my world turns inside out And I swear I I hear you calling I hear you calling out my name

Only you yeah it's only you It's only you I see Girl if it's only you, yeah it's only you It's only you and me yeah It's only you, yeah it's only you It's only you and me
