

Red eyes think of me kindly
Kindly they'll take me
I'll be your story
Child that you think of
Looking at headlights
From inside your window
Its cold in your room

And I'm in your window
Losing my shadow
And now I'm 23
There's three at your table
Speak to her softly
As if I'm beside her
Just like my father
I'll be alright

Undone and I can't forget about it
Undone and I can't forget about it
Undone and I can't forget about it
Undone and I can't

Sleep now
Now everything's undone
I'm brushing your hair back
They're calling you home
Oh Mrs. Darling
What did they tell you
If I start to shake
I got it from you

Undone and I can't forget about it
Undone and I can't forget about it
Undone and I can't forget about it
Undone and I can't forget about it
Undone and I can't forget about it
Undone and I can't forget about it
Undone and I can't forget about it
Undone and I can't forget about it
