

Harder To Kill

Carter Vail

If it's a game, I'm always losing
If it's a joke, I don't get it
Stop and go, bad decisions
Now I'm walking home alone

How's your dog? How's your sister?
I shouldn't care, I shouldn't miss 'em
I'm getting sun, calling friends up
Drinking water, getting stoned
Your finger on the trigger
Kiss me in your car
Cut up into pieces
Buried in the yard
I thought I would be harder to kill but here we are

And I thought
(I should be harder to kill)
But here we are
(I should be harder to kill)
And in my head
(I should be harder to kill)
But I was wrong
(I should be harder to kill)

Hunting dog, little rabbit
In its mouth, just for practice
You're a cop, I'm a cowboy
This town ain't big enough for two

I know I should be harder to kill but here we are
I should be harder to kill but here we are
I know I should be harder to kill but here we are

And I thought
(I should be harder to kill)
But here we are
(I should be harder to kill)
And in my head
(I should be harder to kill)
I was wrong
(I should be harder to kill)
And I'll be strong
(I should be harder to kill)
And I can learn karate
(I should be harder to kill)
And I'll throw a party in my big house (I should be harder to kill)
And you can't come
(I should be harder to kill)
And you can't come
(I should be harder to kill)
And you can't come
(I should be harder to kill)

You're pretending, ah-ee-ah
You're pretending, ah-ee-ah
You're pretending, ah-ee-ah
You're pretending, ah-ee-ah
