

Marilyn Monroe

Carter Vail

Stick around, you might find something you like
I lie to you every time you turned out the light
I saw Jesus
I saw Marilyn Monroe

Your hotel is burning down, you started the fire
I'll bite if you if you promise that I'll see you tonight
What, you're crying now?
This party's starting to blow

I know we'll be alright
I know we'll be alright

Smoked out, let down, drunk on a yard
Your horoscope in the solo cup, you dance on a card
You don't believe in astrology
Well, what do you know?

2 jeans, a cliché is giving me less
Bruce Springsteen has never even been to the West
So you're tried now
Try a three hour show

I know we'll be alright
I know we'll be alright
Oh, I, I got you by my side
I know we'll be alright

Looking for the front [?], killing the bugs
401(k), can't get you a job
I'm working from home, drinking as much
Seeing your show, no credit card
You'll be alright

I know we'll be alright
I know we'll be alright
Oh, I, I got shoe my size
I know we'll be alright (We'll be alright)

I know we'll be alright (Be alright) (We'll be alright)
I know we'll be alright (We'll be alright)
Oh, I, I got shoe my size (We'll be alright)
I know we're gonna be alright (We'll be alright)
