

Nancy Again

Carter Vail

Ah-yeah-yeah

There she goes again, Nancy runs the sink
Drops her cigarette, circles the drain
'Cause heat falls around you
I swear, it's true

Oil and water mixing through her veins (I think you need it)
(I think you need it)
The Alka-Seltzer slipping in her drink (you're gonna lose it)
(You're gonna lose it)
Ah-yeah-yeah

Light curves around you
I swear it's true

Ah-yeah-yeah
I get so lost, you found me out
I'd never let you down
Just a little bit low

No one can compare, standing on the brink
(I don't want to be better off without you)
The world has lost control, Nancy does the same (I don't want to be)
(Better I'm supposed to know)

But she stays, all day and I swear, it's true
And I lost it

I get so lost, you found me out
I'd never let you down
Being stuck in rain (I get so drawn)
She's freaking out (you found me out)
I'd never let you down (I'd never let you down)
I'd never let you down (I'd never let you down)
(I'd never let you down)

You're just a little bit low
Just a little bit low
I'm just a little bit low
Just a little bit low
Ah-yeah-yeah
