

NAPOLEON

Carter Vail

I'm here for you
You're here for me
In my head and on the screen
Napoleon, it's guaranteed
If life's a circus you're a freak

Glasgow, blackout
Cash in, cash out
Oh no, I've done it again
Versailles, don't cry
Hair wet, blow dry
Lonely but we can pretend
(Yeah!)

I hear your voice, radio
Coming through in stereo
You pull me in, I'm on my knees
Hit my head and fall asleep

New York, sunshine
Hudson, goodbye
Every summer's still got to end
L.A. can't stay
Break down, interstate
I'm still stuck in the bends

I've been sleeping alone
I've been sleeping alone
I've been trying to come clean
I just want you to know

I've been sleeping alone
I've been sleeping alone
I've been trying to come clean
I just want you to know

(I've been sleeping alone
I've been sleeping alone
I've been trying to come clean
I just want you to know)

I just want you to know

Lace up white shoes and red wine
Let down, forget the punchline
Fucked up, that's just the way it goes, oh

Lace up white shoes and red wine
Let down, forget the punchline
I'm fucked up, that's just the way it goes

I've been sleeping alone
I've been sleeping alone
I've been trying to come clean
I just want you to know

I've been sleeping alone

I've been sleeping alone
I've been trying to come clean

I just want you to know

I just want you to know

I just want you to know
