

On/Off

Carter Vail

Standing by the wall
What a picture of elegance
Writing on the stall
Phone number such a gentleman
Who you gonna call baby
I've been waiting for you

We don't have to talk
We can sit still, reticence
Corner of my eye
What a wonderful cardigan
Slipping out my mouth baby
I've been waiting for you

No I don't want to dance
But baby after you leave
I'm showing up on your phone
Be the last one you see

I get so nervous when I think of you
Alone in your bedroom
With the radio on or the radio off
I get so nervous when I think of you
Nothing that I can do
Turn the radio on, turn the radio off

You're everything I want
In a pixelated sonogram
Taking off your top
It's a product of the way you've been
Listen to your mom baby
I've been waiting for you

But now I'm falling in love
As you're falling asleep
Don't it feel like a drug?
Is it just what you need?

I get so nervous when I think of you
Alone in your bedroom
With the radio on or the radio off
I get so nervous when I think of you
Nothing that I can do
Turn the radio on, turn the radio off

Oh I don't want to stay too long
I don't want to say something wrong
I'm gonna mess this up

Come here, come here, come here

I get so nervous when I think of you
Alone in your bedroom
With the radio on or the radio off
I get so nervous when I think of you
Nothing that I can do

I get so nervous when I think of you
Nothing that I can do
Radio on radio off
