

Ready Aim Fire

Carter Vail

Ready, aim, fire
Looking down the barrel of your gun
Sometime between your birthday and the sun
Supernova, I'm getting older
You stay the same age and you lose a little life in the fun
Ready, aim, fire
Turn out the lights in your house
And tonight, oh, it's flying out of your mouth
You're too sober, stitch up a suture
You be the doctor and I'll be your patient

Does it hurt you like it hurts me?
I'm ready to go
You got me, I'm ready to blow
Tonight, life on the line
I'll be your target, you ready, aim, fire

Ready, aim, fire
Everyone goes in the end
It's alright
Sinking back down in the bends
And you're floating
Bare on the ceiling
Pulling the trigger
Don't ask any questions
And I'll fall asleep to the sound of your breathing
I won't have to ask if you're staying or

Does it hurt you like it hurts me?
I'm ready to go
You got me, I'm ready to blow
Tonight, life on the line
I'll be your target, you ready, aim, fire
It hurts you like it hurts me
I'm ready to go
You got me, I'm ready to blow
Tonight, tied to the fire
I'll be your target, you ready, aim, fire

Ready, aim, fire
Ready, aim, fire
Ready, aim, fire
I'll be your target, you ready, aim, fire
