

Nothing in the World / The Path

Cary Brothers

Show me where it hurts
Show me all the bruises
Nothing in the world
Will keep me from you
Read me all the words
A diary of abuse
Nothing in the world
Will keep me from you

You keep tryin' tryin' tryin'
To scare me away
But love keeps gettin' stronger every day
You keep tryin' tryin' tryin'
To push me away
But love keeps gettin' stronger every day

Ooh, you see broken
I see strong
Ooh, you have every right
To be wrong

Show me where it hurts
Show me all the bruises
Nothing in the world
Will keep me from you
Witness to your word
Your eyes are all the proof
Nothing in the world
Will keep me from you

Ooh, you see broken
I see strong
Ooh, you have every right
To be wrong

Show me where it hurts
Show me all the bruises
Nothing in the world
Will keep me from you

Nothing in the world
(Show me your world)
Nothing in the world
Nothing in the world
(Show me your world)
Will keep me from you

Nothing in the world
(Show me your world)
Nothing in the world
Nothing in the world
(Show me your world)
Will keep me from you

What makes the ordinary new?
And what is the combination to truth?
Once undecided now succumb

It wrecks the rocks and breaks your bones
You will find that it rings true
Hear the call, the path
From me
To you

We fall silent and we pray
As this harsh world it goes insane
And we are stars of this new play
We act the parts, the start of everything
We act the parts, the start of everything
