

Say

Cary Brothers

Oh, a photograph of your face
Brought back the memories, they never fade
I stood before you afraid
Never again

Say that you love me
Sing to me a song
Stay if you care
Say that you love me
I've waited far too long
Speak the words, if you dare

Oh, what sort of price do we pay?
Where are all the dreams we had just yesterday?
I will choose love above everything

Say that you love me
Sing to me a song
Stay if you care
Say that you love me
I've waited far too long
Speak the words, if you dare
Speak the words, if you dare

Can I go back in time
To the place where you were mine
And the future was so bright?
I wanna go back in time
To the summer when we shined all night
All night
All night

Say that you love me
Sing to me a song
Stay if you care
Say that you love me
I've waited far too long
Speak the words, if you dare
Speak the words, if you dare
Speak the words, if you dare
