

Start Might Feel

Cary Brothers

Break down, started a war
Then forget about it
Knocked down, feelings are torn
Nothing said about it

In the ashes of a battle we lost
We sit in silence
I'll go first and tell you all of my faults
Let go defiance

Don't be sad cuz we're not breaking up
This is how a start might feel
This is how a start might feel

What's next? now it's your turn
Are you upset about it?
In love, so much to learn
We'll be better for it

It's the work we're always talking about and avoiding
A roll in the hay won't help us figure it out
This is the moment

Don't be sad cuz we're not breaking up
This is how a start might feel
This is how a start might feel
Don't be sad cuz when the truth begins
This is how a start might feel
This is how a start might feel

We had fun playing at real life
But let's be honest
We were stubborn, it's a problem, our pride
So won't you take a sip and swallow it

Don't be sad cuz we're not breaking up
This is how a start might feel
This is how a start might feel
Don't be sad, when the truth begins
This is how a start might feel
This is how a start might feel

Don't be sad
(Can't stop, can't stop fallin')
Cuz we're not breaking up
(Can't stop, can't stop fallin')
This is how a start might feel
(Can't stop, can't stop fallin')
This is how a start might feel
(Can't stop, can't stop fallin')
